NOTICE TO THE MARKET

Cemig remains in "The Sustainability Yearbook 2024" and is recognized by CDP

COMPANHIA ENERGÉTICA DE MINAS GERAIS – CEMIG ("CEMIG" or "Company"), a publicly-held company with shares traded on the stock exchanges of São Paulo, New York, and Madrid, pursuant to its commitment to adopting the best corporate governance practices, hereby informs its shareholders and the market in general that it has been included in S&P Global's "Sustainability Yearbook 2024," putting the Company in the list of the most sustainable companies in the world.

"The Sustainability Yearbook 2024" highlights 759 leading organizations in sustainability this year. The position of each company in the list was defined according to their respective ranking in the S&P Global ESG Scores, which was calculated based on the Corporate Sustainability Assessment (CSA). Only 4 Brazilian electricity companies are on the list, and Cemig was ranked first place among them.

The Company's maintenance in the yearbook demonstrates Cemig's continuous commitment to adopting the best ESG practices, which are determining factors for sustainable growth, with the purpose of creating value for its shareholders, employees, suppliers, and society.

CDP

Cemig was recognized as one of the world leaders in climate risk and water security management (A- in both indexes) this week. The questionnaire-based evaluation is carried out annually by international organization CDP (Disclosure Insight Action). Cemig delivered a superior performance in comparison with the average of other electricity companies and the global average of electricity companies.

CDP is a global non-profit organization that manages the main environmental disclosure platform for initiatives aimed at strategically managing climate change. It addresses various categories, such as the reduction in the emissions of greenhouse gases, and risk management and opportunities. The 2023 questionnaire had over 23,000 companies disclosing information about management and practices in environmental initiatives through CDP.
