

Notice to Shareholders

Banco Bradesco S.A. hereby informs the market and its shareholders that, at an auction held at B3 S.A. – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão (B3) on May 20, 2019, it sold all of the shares resulting from fractions of shares arising from the 20% bonus operation (2 new shares, of the same type, for each 10 shares held), as approved at the Special Shareholders' Meeting held on March 11, 2019.

At the opportunity, a total of 19,455 common shares and 155,933 preferred shares were sold, all of which non-par, registered, book-entry shares.

The amounts to be paid to the holders of the fractions will be R$29.380310974 per common share and R$33.999966139 per preferred share, totaling R$5,873,310.67.

The respective amounts will be available to the entitled shareholders, as of May 31, 2019, as follows:

- a) to shareholders whose shares are deposited at the Company and who keep their register and banking data updated, by means of credit in the current accounts in a Financial Institution appointed by them; and
- b) to shareholders whose shares are deposited at B3, by means of Institutions and/or Brokerage Houses which keep their shareholding position in custody.

The shareholders who do not have their data updated must go to a Bradesco Branch of their preference, with their Individual Taxpayer's ID, Identification Document and proof of residence to update their information and receive the respective amounts to which they are entitled.
