Bradesco discloses the complementary version of its 2019 Integrated Report

Dear Sir or Madam,

Banco Bradesco S.A. (B3: BBDC3, BBDC4; NYSE: BBD, BBDO; and Latibex: XBBDC), following the best practices of corporate governance and in a continuous process of evolution in the provision of information with transparency, offers the complementary version of its 2019 Integrated Report, which presents the institutional, financial and sustainability information of the Organization in a single document. In comparison with the summarized version published last March, this complementary version offers a higher level of detail of information and indicators related to the theme, including the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) and the aspects proposed by the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC). In addition to these, there is also the alignment of the main themes of the Organization with the Sustainable Development Objectives (ODS).

We also updated, in this complementary version, information about the current scenario in which we are living, related to the Covid-19 pandemic, because even at a time of great uncertainty, we are showing resilience in adapting to maintain our commitment to contribute to the economic and social growth of the Brazilian society. Despite the global difficulties, which require complex decisions and combined efforts to overcome them, we remain united with our people, clients and with society, with the conviction that we will get through this crisis.
