According to the aforementioned resolution, the APRs of the transmission assets of Copel Geração e Transmissão S.A. (“Copel GeT”) for the 2020/2021 cycle are now R$777.2 million, of which R$703.4 million correspond to revenue from assets in operation (R$582.9 million in the previous cycle), representing an increase of R$194.3 million (+ 20.7%). The remaining RAP of R$73.8 million, referring to projects under construction, will only be received as of the beginning of the commercial operation of the projects.

Additionally, considering the APRs approved for Specific Purpose Company (“SPC”) in which Copel GeT has an equity interest, the total consolidated value for Copel GeT is now R$1,146.0 million (R$880.5 million in the previous cycle), representing an increase of R$265.5 million (+ 30.2%).

Contract Tariff Review 060/2001

The readjustment in APR at Copel GeT mentioned above includes the result of the periodic tariff review process of Concession Contract No. 060/2001, in accordance with Homologatory Resolution No. 2,715, of June 30, 2020. As a result of this process, the tariff repositioning index of contract no. 060/2001 was 10.16% in relation to the APR in force for the 2018-2019 cycle (Homologatory Resolution no. 2.408 / 2018), with the result of the difference between the RAPs being updated to the base date June 2020 and will be incorporated through the Adjustment Portion (“AP”) in the last 3 years of the cycle, that is, between July 2020 and June 2023, and the adjustment portion related to the 2020-2021 cycle is included in the ratified APR by Homologatory Resolution No. 2,725 / 2020.

RBSE - Remuneration of the Financial Component at the Cost of Equity

As determined by Aneel, as of the 2020/2021 cycle, the remuneration portion of RBSE's financial component will be remunerated at the cost of equity (“Ke”), as provided for in MME Ordinance No. 120/16. The amount not received in the last three cycles (2017-2020) will be incorporated in the next 3 cycles (2020-2023) through AP.
