

Banco Bradesco S.A. (Bradesco) hereby informs its shareholders, customers and the market its target to deploy R$250 billion to sectors and assets with a positive social and environmental impact by 2025.

The target is based on credit granting for sectors and activities that present a positive impact contribution; financial products with a social and environmental focus for individuals and companies; in addition to bonds and loans with ESG (environmental, social and governance) labels.

With the largest target of its kind ever announced by a Brazilian bank, Bradesco reinforces its commitment to be an agent of positive transformation in society, in line with its corporate mission and institutional commitments - such as to support the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and to follow the United Nations' Principles for Responsible Banking (PRB).
