

Banco Bradesco S.A. ("Bradesco") communicates to the market, to its shareholders, clients and employees that, through its subsidiary Bradescard Elo Participações S.A., it signed a contract with BB Elo Cartões Participações S.A., a subsidiary of Banco do Brasil S.A., for the purchase of its 49.99% stake in Banco Digio S.A. ("Digio"). The contract was signed with the consent of Elo Participações Ltda and other companies that compose the current corporate structure of Digio.

R$625 million will be paid for this participation, and Bradesco will indirectly hold 100% of Digio's share capital.

Digio is a digital bank, which offers its individual account holders a differentiated experience in their financial activities and payments. Digio currently has approximately 2 million credit cards and also offers checking accounts and personal credit to its customers. Its credit portfolio is in the order of R$2.5 billion.

This transaction is aligned with the strategy of Bradesco of investing in digital businesses, complementing its operations in a diversified manner and reaching different audiences, with different models.

The conclusion of the operation is subject to the approval of the Brazilian Central Bank and of the Administrative Council of Economic Defense, in addition to the completion of other formalities required.
