Copel is awarded Deal of the Year by LatinFinance

COPEL (“Company”), a company that generates, transmits, distributes and trades energy informs its shareholders and the market in general that received the Subnational Deal of the Year award from LatinFinance magazine, in recognition of the process of transforming COPEL into a corporation with dispersed capital and without a controlling shareholder, which took place in 2023.

LatinFinance is an important source of intelligence on the financial market and economies of Latin America and the Caribbean and has been publishing a magazine since 1988, which is currently published in 4 annual editions. The award received by the Company is based on nominations from specialist capital market participants that take into account factors such as innovation, timing, forecasting, quality of execution and the impact of the transaction.

This achievement reflects the commitment, efficiency and effectiveness of the entire Company in the set of actions for the successful execution of the Public Offering of Shares process.
