

AXIA ENERGIA

Eletrobras is now AXIA Energia

Rio de Janeiro, October 22, 2025, Centrais Elétricas Brasileiras S/A – Eletrobras announces a new chapter in its trajectory as the largest energy company in the Southern Hemisphere. Eletrobras is now AXIA Energia, a brand born from its legacy and representing the future vision of a Company guided by financial discipline, operational excellence, and consistent value creation. The name AXIA, of Greek origin, means “value” and refers to the idea of “axis,” which connects, sustains, and generates movement.

The new identity consolidates the transformation process initiated in 2022, which has made the Company more innovative, agile, and prepared to respond to technological, regulatory, and market challenges.

Starting on November 10, 2025, the Company's issued shares will be traded on B3 and NYSE, as follows:

Ticker B3

- Common Shares: AXIA3, in substitution to ELET3
- Preferred Shares A: AXIA5, in substitution to ELET5
- Preferred Shares B: AXIA6, in substitution to ELET6
- Trading Name: AXIA ENERGIA

Ticker NYSE

- Common Shares: AXIA, em substituição a EBR
- Preferred Shares: AXIA PR, em substituição a EBR B
- Trading Name: AXIA ENERGIA

Additionally, starting on 10/24/2025, the Investor Relations website will be: ri.axia.com.br

The brand change does not imply any alteration in contractual, corporate, or regulatory commitments.

This initiative reflects the conviction that the future of energy will be built by solid, reliable companies capable of catalyzing businesses that drive sustainable economic development. From this perspective, AXIA Energia is born.

The Company will, in due course, adopt the remaining formalities related to the new corporate identity, including the change of its corporate name.
