Business Plan and governance prepare Petrobras to generate value in challenging price environments

Our strategy: high-return investments that are only approved with a positive NPV in a robust scenario

The projects in the Under Evaluation Portfolio remain bound to economical feasibility and on the condition that they do not compromise the capital structure

A solid Shareholder Remuneration Policy ensures dividends compliant with different Brent prices, without compromising the Company's financial strength

Yet, we are incorporating actions into the Business Plan to strengthen our resilience

*Our strategy remains unchanged.

*The next Business Plan is being developed taking into account a reality with a new level for oil prices.

Minimize inflationary effects through optimization of expenditures.

Mitigate the impact of lower prices on free cash flow.

Prioritize projects that generate cash flow in shorter time frames.
