FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Material Fact may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are not historical facts, but rather are based on the current view and estimates of the Company's management regarding future economic and other circumstances, industry conditions, financial performance and results, including any potential or projected impact regarding the geological event in Alagoas and related legal procedures on the Company's business, financial condition and operating results. The words "project," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "plan", "objective" and other similar expressions, when referring to the Company, are used to identify forward-looking statements. Statements related to the possible outcome of legal and administrative proceedings, implementation of operational and financing strategies and investment plans, guidance on future operations, the objective of expanding its efforts to achieve the sustainable macro objectives disclosed by the Company, as well as factors or trends that affect the financial condition, liquidity or operating results of the Company are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of the Company's management and are subject to various risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's control. There is no guarantee that the events, trends or expected results will actually occur. The statements are based on various assumptions and factors, including, but not limited to, general economic and market conditions, industry conditions and operating factors, availability, development and financial access to new technologies. Any change in these assumptions or factors, including the projected impact from the joint venture and its development of technologies, from the geological event in Alagoas and related legal procedures and the unprecedented impact on businesses, employees, service providers, shareholders, investors and other stakeholders of the Company could cause effective results to differ significantly from current expectations. For a comprehensive description of the risks and other factors that could impact any forward-looking statements in this document, especially the factors discussed in the sections, see the reports filed with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM). This Material Fact does not constitute any offer of securities for sale in Brazil. No securities may be offered or sold in Brazil without being registered or exempted from registration, and any public offer of securities carried out in Brazil must be made through a prospectus, which would be made available by Braskem and contain detailed information on Braskem and its management, as well as its financial statements.

INCREASE OF COMMERCIAL CREDIT LIMIT WITH PETROBRAS

INCREASE OF COMMERCIAL CREDIT LIMIT WITH PETROBRAS TO BRL 2,350 MILLION IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN COMMERCIAL AGREEMENTS

The contracts related to the transaction described herein (a) are subject to finalization of corporate governance approval process by Petrobras, (b) are subject to finalization of the underlying transaction documents, and (c) shall only be entered into following the filing by Braskem S.A. of an extrajudicial restructuring with a restructuring plan approved by at least 1/3 of the relevant creditors subject thereto.

	Main Terms & Conditions
Structure	Increase in Braskem's commercial credit limit with Petrobras for the purchase of feedstock under certain commercial agreements with payment terms of up to 30 days
Amount	BRL 2,350 million
Tenor	Up to December 31, 2026
Collateral	• Fiduciary assignment ("cessão fiduciária") of receivables as collateral[1], in the amount of at least BRL 1.0 billion per month • Fiduciary transfer of title ("alienação fiduciária") of an escrow account into which the receivables described above will be paid by the customers, including a cash retention mechanism of at least BRL 300 million[2] • Fiduciary assignment ("cessão fiduciária") of Braskem's receivables arising from a final and non-appealable judicial claim ("CIDE Combustíveis"), amounting to approximately BRL 2.7 billion. Braskem will be entitled to use the balance of such judicial claim for tax credit utilization purposes[3]
Other conditions	• Subject to the terms of the commercial agreements, including the cost of extended payment terms • The commercial credit limit may be suspended by Petrobras if the minimum monthly flow of receivables is not maintained • Events of default include payment and other non-payment defaults, bankruptcy ("decretação de falência") or the filing for judicial reorganization ("recuperação judicial") resulting in the acceleration of indebtedness by any creditor, liquidation, or the acceleration of the Company's financial indebtedness

(1) Receivables from certain customers in the ordinary course of business.
(2) After the retained cash reaches BRL 300 million and subjected to no default by Braskem, all receivables paid in the escrow account will be transferred to the Company.
(3) Such right is conditioned upon no default by Braskem.
