At a session held on May 26th, 2026, the 7th Panel of TRF1 decided to:

1. Recognize the legality of incorporating RBSE assets into the Regulatory Remuneration Base;
2. Declare null and void paragraph 3 of article 1 of MME Ordinance No. 120/2016, and determine that the amounts already paid to transmission companies as remuneration for the cost of equity (Ke) be compensated through tariffs in subsequent tariff cycles, within the same period in which they were charged, by means of an Adjustment Portion instrument, so as to reimburse the plaintiffs who bore this charge;
1. Grant interim relief to suspend the charging of Ke as from tariff cycle 2026/2027 with respect to the plaintiffs;

The Company and its legal advisors continue to monitor the matter and await publication of the court decision in order to analyze its full content and procedural aspects, as the decision remains subject to appeal.

CEMIG will keep the market informed of any further developments on this matter.
